

scription of a much admired hero, K~~l~~appe-arabhata. He was say's the inscription, gentle to the gentle, a friend to the friendly, but a terror to the mischievous. the description is often quoted as summing up to kannadiga's ideal of a perfect man.

Kannada language in mother tongue prevailed dominantly in Hyderabad Karnataka region. Hyderabad Karnataka region is known for the development of kannada because, the first extant work(Book) in Kannada is 'Kaviraja Marga' by shree vijay (9th CenturyAD) is found at Malkhed, Tq. Sedam, Dist. Gulbarga. Kaviraj Marga is work on poetics such a work cannot appear without a considerable body creative writing.

Hyderabad Karnataka region is one of rich information value. containing Kannada culture and literature revealing the significance of the region inoculated in the form of manuscripts, rare books and other materials. There should be some mechanism to preserve this cultural information of Hyderabad Karnataka region for posterity and use. To achieve this libraries play significant role.